<https://www.whiteeaglegc.com>

Originally designed by Arnold Palmer Design Group, White Eagle Golf Club is located on approximately 163 acres in Naperville, Illinois, just outside of Chicago. There are three nine-hole courses; holes 1 through 9 are referred to as the Red Course and holes 10 through 18 are the White Course. Holes 19 through 27 were developed at a later date and are referred to as the Blue Course.

Architects: Arnold Palmer Design Group

Year Opened: 1989

The first of the three nines to open was the White Course in August 1989. The first few weeks that the club was open, members had to play the White nine twice to get in an 18-hole round.
